World Suicide Prevention Day observed at GDC Pouni

Faculty along with students during the event.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

POUNI: World Suicide Prevention Day was observed by the Department of Sociology in collaboration with IQAC at Government Degree College Pouni under the guidance and supervision of Principal, Prof. Rajni Bhagat. The message was come out assertively—"Say No to Suicide," with the Brain-Storming Session conducted by Dr. Varsha Kapoor, HOD Sociology and Co-Convenor IQAC. She maintains that today is the day we remind ourselves to look out for one another. The Brain-Storming Session included a short video on Suicide, the Teacher-Student engagement, and a series of questions and answers with illustrative examples. Dr. Varsha Kapoor underlined the Psycho-sociological reasons for suicides and the role of friends and family in playing a fundamental role for someone with suicidal tendencies just by listening to their problems, being by their side and assuring help and support. In the session, she also emphasized to be conscious of and recognize the warning signs and offering timely support to the individual. By tracing the history of World Suicide Prevention Day, she asserted that there is a call for global commitment to focus attention on suicide prevention and work in this direction. The whole event was coordinated by Prof. Balbir Kumar, Convener IQAC, Dr. Tarseem Kumar, Prof. Jaspal Singh, Prof. U S Liza and Tanpreet Singh.
