Sardarni Sant Kour daughter of late Bhai Ravail Singh and Sardni Harnam Kour was born in 1936 in village Kothian, Tehsil Bagh (now in POJK). She had three brothers and five sisters. During partition in 1947 the family got displaced and settled at Udhampur.

She got married to Sardar Amar Singh who was serving as Granthi in a Gurdwara in Gurdaspur. She was blessed with two sons and three daughters to whom she provided good education. Her sons and daughters were married in good families but to her ill luck her daughter Kulwant Kour expired in 1990 and son-in-law Jaswant Singh husband of her other daughter Gurbachan Kour also died in 1998. Getting greatly shocked her husband fell sick and was shifted from Gurdaspur to Kathua where he also expired in 2001.

She was a very intelligent, honest, hospitable and a bold lady who faced all evens and odds of the life. Villagers of Gurdwara in Gurdaspur regarded her husband as Baba Ji and invited her to look after Gurdwara. She served there for more than a decade in place of her husband. She breathed her last on 18 August, 2023 after a prolonged ailment. She is survived by her two sons, two daughters-in-law, two daughters and grand children.
