CB files chargesheet against Kathua man for duping job seekers

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: The Jammu and Kashmir Crime Branch (CB) on Wednesday filed a charge sheet against a person from Kathua for duping youth for lakhs of rupees on the pretext of arranging government jobs for them, an official said.

The charge sheet against Sher Ali, son of Shamas Din, resident of Dangdevpur Tehsil Mahreen, District Kathua, was filed in the court of law for cheating the complainant and other unemployed youth of Rs 5.50 lakhs, a crime branch spokesperson said.

A 104-page charge sheet was produced in the court for judicial determination, he said.

A case was registered against Ali on a written complaint lodged by Manzoor Ahmed. It was alleged that Ali lured him and other unemployed youths by posing as an influential man
