DB directives in Petition regarding dearth of staff in Courts

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: In a petition filed by Joginder Singh regarding dearth of staff at various level, ie, High Court and District Courts, Pay Anomaly in respect of officers and staff and promotional avenues to Law Graduate Readers of the High Court, the Division Bench of Jammu & Kashmir and Ladakh High Court comprising Justice Tashi Rabstan and Justice Rajesh Sekhri after hearing both the sides observed that compliance report in terms of the previous order has been filed on behalf of the Department of Law, in paragraph-11 wherein it has been averred that pursuant to the meeting convened by the Chief Justice on 25.05.2023 it was recorded that the Chief Secretary has assured for creation of posts in a phased manner; leading to the interpretation that the Government has agreed for creation of all the 334 proposed posts. DB further observed that it is to be seen here that when the matter was listed on 05.08.2022, Amit Gupta, AAG, had stated at the Bar that the Department of Law has recommended creation of 334 posts having financial implication of Rs.2402 lacs and the proposal has already been sent by the Law Department to the Finance Department for concurrence and sanction. Therefore, at this stage the respondents are debarred from taking a different stand, thus cannot be allowed to backtrack from their earlier stand or word of honor. DB further observed that be that as it may, in the compliance report the respondents have averred that 24 posts of different cadres have already been created in the first phase and that in the second phase 132 posts are being created, a detailed breakup has also been given in the compliance report. It is averred that the Finance Department has also given its concurrence for creation of 132 posts under various categories vide U.O. No. FD-Code/106/2021-03-890 dated 18.09.2023 and the same has already been sent to the competent authority for placing it before the Administrative Council for its consideration and approval. DB grants six weeks' time to respondents for doing the needful and producing the sanction order of creation of 132 posts in Phase-II on the next date of hearing.

As regards the assertion of respondents with regard to filling up of 148 already available vacancies, as projected in paragraph-25 of the compliance report, the same is out rightly rejected, Division Bench said. DB directed that the respondents are bound to create the posts after the proposal to create the posts in a phased manner came to be accepted by the Government. Respondents are directed to place on record on the next date of hearing the proposal for creation of rest of the posts to be created in the final and last third phase.

DB also directed petitioner-Joginder Singh to file an affidavit disclosing how many of the posts mentioned in the compliance report are actually meant for District Court posts and has no relation with the present litigation.

DB recalled the order dated 28.08.2023 with regard to para 3 to the extent that in case needful is not done by next date of hearing, respondent No.2 shall not draw his salary.

CBI Court rejects bail application of Revenue Inspector

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Special Judge CBI Jammu Bala Joyti today rejected the bail application of one Ashok Kumar who was posted in the office of Chief Executive Officer (CEO) Cantonment Board, Satwari, was arrested by CBI while demanding and accepting the graft amount from one Vinod Sharma.

Special Judge CBI Jammu Bala Joyti after hearing PP Vijay Dogra for the CBI, observed that the accused person primarily seems to have been grossly involved in the heinous offence of demanding bribe from the complainant for not evicting him from the residential quarter and for making allotment entry in the name of the complainant. It is not disputed that the accused has been arrested in aforesaid matter on 14.09.2023 in FIR No. RC0042023A0009 and investigation is still going on and the accused is on judicial remand for 10 days. I.O in this case was directed to expedite investigation as the intention of the legislature enacting the proviso to section 167 (2) appears to ensure that every investigation must be completed without necessary delay and for that purpose a time limit has been fixed, hence period of detention has to be computed in a particular case uninterruptedly from the date when an accused is produced before the Magistrate and cannot be tagged or separated if the accused person is involved in more than one case. The investigation in the instant case is still at its infancy and he was arrested after a trap was laid. This clearly goes on to show that the I.O has yet to collect material evidence and more arrests are apprehended. As pleaded by the prosecution, the accused is an influential person and there is every likelihood that if he is granted bail, he may tamper with prosecution evidence collected by the Investigating Officer and give slip to law. For the foregoing reasons, the application being premature and devoid of any legal force merits rejection at this stage and is accordingly dismissed. However, the applicant is not debarred from filing a fresh application if there is any change in the circumstances.
