SHRADHANJALI

Shri Kuldeep Singh Sambyal son of late Thakur Khushal Singh was born on 2nd November, 1946 in village Mandi Sangwali, district Samba. He had three brothers and one sister. He completed his matriculation and started looking after farming. He got married to Smt Pushpa Sambyal daughter of Shri Kamal Singh. He was blessed with three sons and two daughters to whom he provided good education. His sons and daughters are married in good families and are well settled.

He was a very simple, gentle and honest person. He was very polite, social and helpful, always ready to help the poor and needy people. He was a God fearing person and quite regular in his Pooja Path.

He breathed his last on 23rd August, 2023 due to cardiac arrest. He is survived by his wife, three sons and two daughters. May God give eternal peace to the departed soul and courage to the family members to bear this irreparable loss.

Agriculture Department Kishtwar sends farmers on Exposure Visit cum Training Program

STATE TIMES NEWS

KISHTWAR: The Department of Agriculture and Farmers Welfare, District Kishtwar sent a group of 15 farmers for a 5-day Exposure Visit cum Training program.

This educational endeavor is being conducted as a part of the Sub Mission of Agriculture Extension (ATMA) and is set to take place at the esteemed institutions of SKUAST Jammu and Shri Mata Vaishno Devi University Jammu.

The initiative has received unwavering support and guidance from the Deputy Commissioner, Dr. Devansh Yadav, who has provided vital direction for its successful execution.

Furthermore, the meticulous planning and supervision of Chief Agriculture Officer Kishtwar, Amjad Hussain Malik, have been instrumental in ensuring the program's smooth operation.

The Additional District Development Commissioner, Sham Lal, presided over the official flag-off ceremony of the contingent. This significant event was attended by key officials including Chief Agriculture Officer Kishtwar Amjad Hussain Malik, Saffron Development Officer Amarjeet Sen, and DAO Sanjay Sharma, besides other officials.

The ADDC, while interacting with the farmers on the occasion, said that the visit has been organised for making the farmers aware of the latest technologies for commercial agriculture. Realtime trends in organic farming and cultivation of different agriculture crops on scientific lines.

He impressed upon them to interact with the farm scientists, experts, and extension functionaries to get acquainted with up to date methodologies in crop cultivation on scientific lines.

He also asked them to enhance their technical skills in the field of integrated farming and to adopt the advanced technologies for cultivation of different agricultural crops after learning from such training/exposure visits.

The farmers participating in this educational venture hail from various agriculture sub-divisions and have displayed great enthusiasm in their quest to acquire new techniques and knowledge. They extend their heartfelt gratitude to the Administration for providing them with this invaluable opportunity for growth and learning.

This initiative underscores the commitment of the Department of Agriculture and Farmers Welfare, District Kishtwar, to empower and uplift the farming community through education and exposure to cutting-edge agricultural practices. Such programs play a pivotal role in enhancing agricultural productivity, fostering innovation, and ultimately improving the livelihoods of our dedicated farmers.

Digital J&K Week Campaign-Day 3: Mega events being held in Banihal, Ramsoo and Gool Sub-divisions

STATE TIMES NEWS

RAMBAN: In continuation to the Digital J&K Week campaign, three mega events will be organized at Subdivision level in Banihal, Ramsoo and Gool, said Deputy Commissioner Ramban, Mussarat Islam while addressing the culmination function of 3-day Digi Mela at district headquarters, here today.

Senior Superintendent of Traffic Police, National Highway, Rohit Baskotra was the special guest on the occasion, while Chief Planning Officer, Dr. Kasturi Lal, GM DIC Ravinder Anand, DSEO, Ganesh Kumar, CAHO, CHO, DSHO, Executive Engineer Jal Shakti Rajeev Gai, DIO NIC, Parshant Kumar, PRIs and other senior officers also attended the programme.

The 3-day Digi Mela at Ramban- the part of Digital J&K Week campaign 2023 witnessed huge participation of people from all walks of life.

During the Mela the departments including Agriculture, Horticulture, Sheep Husbandry, Animal Husbandry, Health, Election, Revenue, Education, ICDS, Cooperative, JK Tourism, Social welfare, Transport, Labour and Employment, Rural Development, Banks, Common Services Centres, District Treasury Office and Municipal Council sensitized the participants about their online services besides providing handholding to them for availing the benefits of people oriented schemes at their doorsteps.

Elaborating the main objectives of Digital J&K Week campaign, the Deputy Commissioner appreciated efforts put in by all the departments to provide hassle free online services to people in a transparent manner.

The Deputy Commissioner also urged the people to avail benefits of 612 online services of different sectors to avoid frequent visits to the Government offices and other services providers.

Encouraging the youth about the benefits of the Digital world, the Senior Superintendent of Police Traffic educated them about challenges pertaining to operating different apps on social media. He advised them to use social media judiciously and carefully to avoid any inconvenience.

He impressed upon the youth to take proper guidance to avail the benefits of online services besides promoting the same in their society by imparting the training to others in their areas.

Later, the Deputy Commissioner and SSP Traffic
