

Div Com reviews renewal of Hotel Licenses

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Divisional Commissioner Jammu, Ramesh Kumar on Saturday chaired a meeting of senior Officers of Tourism and other stakeholder departments to review the status of renewal of Hotel licences. The representatives of Hotel Associations of Jammu division were also present in the meeting.

The president Hotel Association apprised the Div Com about the issues being faced by Hotel associations in renewal of their licences which need NOCs from Pollution Control Board, Fire Services, Character certificates etc. They informed that the process of obtaining various NOCs is time consuming and causes delay in the renewal process due to which hoteliers face many difficulties. The Div Com listened to the issues patiently and assured the Hotel associations that the renewal process would be streamlined to fast-track issuance of licenses. The Director of Tourism informed attendees that the Tourism department has proposed several relaxations to streamline the renewal process. It was clarified that character certificates would be necessary only for initial registration, while renewals would only require an affidavit.

The Div Com instructed all the stakeholder departments to prioritize and facilitate the issuance of NOCs within their purview to ensure the swift renewal of hotel licenses. This move is expected to alleviate challenges faced by hoteliers in the region and promote the tourism sector.

The meeting was attended by Deputy Commissioner Jammu, Sachin Kumar Vaishya; Director Tourism, Vivekanand Rai; MD JPDCL, Shiv Anant 'Yal; besides senior officers of Pollution Control Board, Fire Services, Jammu Municipal Corporation besides President Hotel Association, Pawan Gupta alongwith Office bearers of Association and other concerned.

Artificial insemination kits, associated equipments distributed among trained multipurpose workers

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Director Animal Husbandry Department Jammu, Dr. Shubhra Sharma on Saturday distributed Artificial Insemination (AI) kits, Cryo-containers and other associated equipments to newly trained Multipurpose Artificial Insemination Technicians in Rural India (MAITRIs) in a function organized here today at the Directorate of Animal Husbandry. Speaking on the occasion, the Director said, "To meet the requirement of trained Artificial Insemination technicians in rural areas, the training and induction of MAITRIs has been undertaken under central scheme Rashtriya Gokul Mission (RGM). Through MAITRIs, timely AI services shall be delivered at farmers' doorsteps thereby vastly benefiting the farming community."

The Director further stated that MAITRIs are chosen from amongst unemployed educated youth from across the districts of Jammu division and are trained at accredited AI training institutes according to the module developed by Govt. of India. She further said that besides providing boost to the breed improvement in local cattle through AI services, MAITRIs shall also gain sustainable self-employment avenues to earn their livelihood by getting honorarium in lieu of discharging prescribed services in their respective areas of work.

While giving details about the progress made under this initiative, the Director said that the target for the year 2023-24 is to train and induct 700 MAITRI workers out of which as on date 356 MAITRIs have been trained and equipped to deliver AI services. Further, 195 candidates are currently undergoing training at AI training institute, Bhatinda, Punjab, she added.

The function among others was attended by CEO, Livestock Development Board Jammu, Dr. Raman Kumar Gupta, Chief Animal Husbandry officer Jammu, Dr. Zahid Saleem, Extension Officer, Dr. Nadeem Ahmed, Technical Officer (Gen.), Dr. Rajeev Manhas and officers from Livestock Development Board Jammu.
