SC reserves verdict on pleas challenging abrogation of Article 370

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

NEW DELHI: The Supreme Court on Tuesday reserved its verdict on a batch of pleas challenging the abrogation of Article 370 of the Constitution which bestowed special status on the erstwhile state of Jammu and Kashmir.

A five-judge bench headed by Chief Justice DY Chandrachud reserved the verdict after a marathon 16-day hearing.

The bench, also comprising Justices Sanjay Kishan Kaul, Sanjiv Khanna, BR Gavai and Surya Kant, heard the rejoinder arguments of senior advocates Kapil Sibal, Gopal Subramaniam, Rajeev Dhavan, Zaffar Shah, Dushyant Dave and others on the concluding day of the hearing.

The top court said if any lawyer appearing for the petitioners or respondents wishes to file a written submission can do so in the next three days. The submission should not extend beyond two pages, it said.

In the course of the hearing over the past 16 days, the top court heard Attorney General R Venkataramani, Solicitor General Tushar Mehta, senior advocates Harish Salve, Rakesh Dwivedi, V Giri and others on behalf of the Centre and the intervenors defending the abrogation of Article 370.

The lawyers dwelt on various issues including the constitutional validity of the Centre's August 5, 2019 decision to abrogate the provision, the validity of Jammu and Kashmir Reorganisation Act, which split the erstwhile state into two Union Territories, challenges to imposition of Governor's rule in Jammu and Kashmir on June 20, 2018 and imposition of President's rule in the erstwhile state on December 19, 2018 and its extension on July 3, 2019.

Several petitions challenging the abrogation of Article 370 and the Jammu and Kashmir Reorganisation Act, 2019 that divided the erstwhile state into two union territories - Jammu and Kashmir, and Ladakh - were referred to a Constitution bench in 2019.

SOCIAL ENGINEERING

It is a tactic used by cyber attackers to manipulate individuals into divulging sensitive information or gathering information what you share on social media, as attackers can use this information to craft convincing social engineering attempts, performing actions, or making decisions that compromise security. It relies on psychological manipulation rather than technical exploits to achieve its goals. Social engineers exploit human behaviour and tendencies, often targeting trust, curiosity, fear, or authority to achieve their malicious objectives.

DOs

Research the Sources

Question the legitimacy of unexpected requests for information or actions, even if they seem urgent.

Verify requests

If you receive a request for sensitive information or actions, verify it through established channels before complying.

Beware

Learn about common social engineering techniques and tactics to recognize and resist manipulation.

Always Be Mindful of Risks

Share personal and sensitive information only with trusted individuals and organizations.

DONTs

Never share personal, financial, or sensitive information with unknown individuals or over unsecured channels.

Never trust unsolicited emails, phone calls, or messages asking for sensitive information or actions.

Never succumb to pressure tactics that demand immediate action without proper verification.

Never click on links in unsolicited emails or messages, as they may lead to malicious websites.

Never be careless about what you share on social media, as attackers can use this information to craft convincing social engineering attempts.
