Div Com reviews progress on Jammu City beautification works

Div Com Jammu, Ramesh Kumar chairing a meeting.

STATE TIMES NEWS JAMMU: Divisional Commissioner, Ramesh Kumar on Wednesday chaired a meeting to review the execution of Jammu City beautification Plan.

At the outset, the Div Com reviewed in detail the ongoing works, development projects executed in the city.

The Div Com reviewed the works executed at Bahu Fort premises. CEO JSCL and VC JDA apprised the Div Com that most of the work has been completed while finishing work is in progress.

The Div Com directed JSCL and JDA to expedite the ongoing works and ensure their completion before the upcoming Navratras.

While reviewing works related to development of roads, the PWD officials apprised the Div Com about the status of black-topping works in the city.

The Div Com directed PWD to ensure proper maintenance of roads by filling potholes on city roads.

He also reviewed ongoing projects of Jammu Smart City Limited and the CEO Smart City informed about the latest status of blue green projects, development of rotaries etc.

The Div Com stressed on proper maintenance of City parks, better sanitation, cutting of branches along the dividers etc.

The Div Com stressed on the importance of maintaining cleanliness and ensuring timely lifting of waste to enhance the overall aesthetics of Jammu city.

Recognising the significance of certain landmarks in Jammu city, the Div Com instructed the concerned authorities to focus on the beautification along the road leading to Jammu University and Bahu Fort area, airport road. The Floriculture Department was asked to plant flowers in the pots installed at Tawi bridges and to maintain the same.

The Divisional Commissioner underlined the importance of maintaining the infrastructure and ensuring that the city's thoroughfares are free from obstructions. Additionally, he highlighted the necessity of proper pruning of trees along the roads, followed by their immediate disposal, to prevent traffic congestion.

Furthermore, the Divisional Commissioner called for immediate removal of construction waste that accumulates on the roads during and after the execution of infrastructure development projects. The directive aimed to prevent any public inconvenience or obstructions caused by the debris and maintain the cleanliness of the city.

The Divisional Commissioner emphasised the need to expedite the wall painting art work at different locations to create an appealing visual experience for the residents and visitors alike.

The meeting was attended by Commissioner JMC, Rahul Yadav; Deputy Commissioner Jammu, Sachin Kumar Vaishya; Director Tourism, Vivekanand Rai; DFO Social Forestry, VC JDA, Chief Engineer JPDCL, CEO Cantonment Board, besides senior officers of Police, Traffic Police, Youth Services and Sports, Sports Council, Forest, PWD, Jal Shakti, Irrigation and Flood Control and other concerned departments.

DDC urges people to unite against drug menace

STATE TIMES NEWS JAMMU: As part of the weekly Block Diwas, District Development Commissioner, Sachin Kumar Vaishya on Wednesday led a public meeting at Mishriwala, in block Bhalwal, .

BDC Chairman, Kuldeep Raj, Sarpanchs, Panches besides district officers and concerned members of the civil society were present at the occasion.

During the gathering, the DDC listened to the concerns and grievances voiced by the PRI members and the people of the area. The matters encompassed critical aspects such as power supply, school infrastructure and mobile connectivity. Additionally, the pressing issues of social welfare pensions, BPL card distribution and the provision of a playground were also brought to the forefront.

Highlighting the importance of efficient coordination between departments and public representatives, underscored the need for timely resolution of these issues. Genuine concerns regarding road construction and healthcare facilities were also acknowledged by the DDC. The DDC, in his address, recognised the urgency of issues related to power and water supply, as well as road connectivity. He assured the public that the district administration would strive for prompt solutions, while setting clear deadlines for various works. The session was marked by an open forum where members of the public had the opportunity to interact personally with the BDC Chairman and the DDC.

In a call to action, the DDC urged the public to unite against the menace of drug trafficking in society. He encouraged community members to collaborate with authorities to apprehend those involved in this unlawful activity.
