SVEEP Voter Awareness Programme held at GHS Ghodal, Basohli

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

KATHUA: In preparation for the upcoming General Assembly Elections in Jammu and Kashmir, a Voter Awareness Program was organized today at Government High School Ghodal under the Election Commission of India's flagship initiative, Systematic Voters Education and Electoral Participation (SVEEP).

The event was part of SVEEP district plan which aims to engage and motivate young voters, particularly first-time voters, to actively participate in the electoral process.

The event saw active participation from students, faculty members, ASHA workers, Anganwadi workers, prominent Panchayat representatives, BLO Supervisors, and BLOs from nearby polling stations. Headmaster Hira Singh interacted with the attendees, urging all eligible voters to cast their votes in large numbers on October 1st, 2024, at their respective polling stations. He emphasized the need for informed and ethical voting to achieve the SVEEP goal of "No Voter to be Left Behind."

The Headmaster provided detailed guidance on voter registration, correction of existing voter details, and the removal of names of shifted or deceased family members from the electoral roll. Voters were encouraged to use the Voter Helpline Number 1950 for assistance and the Voter Helpline App to access comprehensive information about contesting candidates and their political affiliations, allowing them to make informed choices.

The program also witnessed the presence of Sector Officer Sher Singh, and was guided by Nodal Officer SVEEP 65-Basohli Dr. Roshan Lal.

The event concluded with a pledge-taking ceremony, where all participants committed to responsible participation in the electoral process.

turnout by ensuring voter education and participation in these far-flung regions, various SVEEP awareness activities have been strategically designed and implemented.

Both awareness groups and local volunteers have been activated to spread the message of electoral participation, emphasizing the importance of informed voting and active civic engagement.

As part of this initiative, a successful voter awareness and painting competition was held at Amin Academy High School, Bunjwah, Kishtwar.

This event combined reactivity and electoral awareness, inspiring students and community members to exercise their right to vote. The participants, through their artistic expressions, echoed the importance of making every vote count.

In another significant event, SVEEP awareness programs were organised at Polling Stations No. 9 and 10, located at Middle School Brayan,Warwan.

The campaign aims to inform and engage voters about the upcoming elections, ensuring they understand the electoral process and are motivated to participate.

The voter awareness programs are in full swing across various locations in Warwan, where citizens are actively engaging in SVEEP activities, further promoting informed participation in the election process.

Similar awareness programmes were held at Marwah zone of District Kishtwar.

With continuous efforts by the District Administration, local volunteers, and educational institutions, the SVEEP campaign in these hard-to-reach areas aims to ensure maximum voter turnout and a well-informed electorate for the Assembly Elections 2024.

"Our primary goal is to ensure that every eligible voter, especially Senior Citizens and Persons with Disabilities get the opportunity to participate in the electoral process without any hindrances.

By adhering to the Election Commission of India's guidelines, we are committed to upholding fairness and efficiency in the elections, making sure that every voter's experience is smooth and equitable." District Election Officer Baseer-Ul-Haq Chaudhary emphasized.

Expenditure Observer reviews operational readiness of Monitoring teams in AC Budhal

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

RAJOURI: In anticipation to the upcoming Assembly elections scheduled for September 25th, 2024, Expenditure Observer Sidharth Kumar today conducted a thorough review of the operational readiness of the Static Surveillance Teams (SSTs) in the Budhal constituency (AC 87). The observer inspected various Nakas (checkpoints) and provided comprehensive guidance to officials on their critical roles and responsibilities in ensuring a fair election.

During his review, Sidharth Kumar emphasized the importance of strategically placing Flying Squad Teams (FSTs) to monitor and control any illegal or unregulated activities related to election spending. He also visited the Returning Officer's (RO) office, where he held in-depth discussions with the officers and officials responsible for tracking and regulating campaign expenditures.

In a detailed briefing, Kumar instructed Assistant Returning

Officers (AROs) and Assistant Expenditure Observers (AEOs) on the protocols for accurately recording and maintaining election expenditure records. He stressed the need for meticulous documentation of all expenses incurred by individual candidates, highlighting the importance of transparency in campaign financing.

The expenditure observer emphasized strict vigilance on the financial conduct of political campaigns, directing officers to closely monitor rallies, meetings, and other political events. He underscored the need to ensure that all expenditures remain within legal limits and are properly documented.

Sidharth Kumar assured election officers of continued support throughout the election process. He warned that any deviations or violations of the financial code would be met with strict measures, underscoring the Election Commission's commitment to conducting a free, fair, and transparent election.
