UDHAMPUR: In the weekly meeting of the Senior Citizens' Club (Regd) Udhampur (SCCU), Sanmati Gupta, Vidya Sagar Rtd Dy. SPs and Rakesh Kumar Gupta Rtd. Assistant Executive Engineer joined the club by obtaining its membership. All these retired recently after rendering their valuable services. Speaking on the occasion the new joiners said that the recent activities and initiatives undertaken by the Club have greatly influenced and inspired them to join the Club. While extending warm welcome to new members Sh. Mahadeep Singh Jamwal, President of the Club, said that the join of new members will further strengthen the club's collective spirit and commitment to our shared goals. Their decision to join the Senior Citizens Club is a testament to the positive impact the club continues to make in the lives of senior citizens in Udhampur. We are confident that their presence will contribute to the ongoing success of our endeavors, and we look forward to their active participation in the various activities and programs organized by the Club. Sh. Vikramaditya, an active member of the club said the Senior Citizens Club remains dedicated to fostering a supportive and inclusive environment where every member can engage, learn, and grow. We encourage all seniors in the community to consider joining us, as together; we can achieve even greater heights.

EPFO Jammu made significant strides in improving service delivery: PF Commissioner

STATE TIMES NEWS
JAMMU: Building an effective team in public sector service delivery organizations, such as the Employees' Provident Fund Organization (EPFO) in Jammu, presents unique challenges, particularly due to ingrained work cultures and group dynamics. Despite these challenges, EPFO Jammu has made significant strides in improving service delivery through dedicated efforts.

PF Commissioner Rizwan Uddin recognized their extraordinary dedication and noted that such efforts are exemplary and worthy of acknowledgment. Their contributions not only addressed the immediate challenges posed by system slowdowns but also inspired others in the organization to elevate their performance.

231 claims. Both were supported by Shri Ashwani Kumar, a programmer, whose assistance was crucial in handling the high volume of work.

A recent example of exceptional team performance emerged on August 26, 2024, when Sanjeev Kumar, a Senior Social Security Assistant (SSSA), demonstrated remarkable commitment and efficiency. Faced with the challenge of system speed-where EPFO's system experiences slow performance during peak hours-Sanjeev volunteered to work during non-peak hours to maximize productivity. On this particular day, he processed an unprecedented 918 claims, a feat rarely achieved in such organizations. His dedication and exemplary performance have set a new benchmark. Following Sanjeev's lead, other team members also demonstrated commendable efforts. On August 25, Subhash, another SSSA, processed 213 claims, and on August 26, Shesh Kumar, also an SSSA, processed

GDC Khour organises symposium on SVEEP to Boost Voting Awareness

STATE TIMES NEWS
KHOUR: GDC Khour organized an enlightening symposium under the Systematic Voters Education and Electoral Participation (SVEEP) initiative, aimed at enhancing voting awareness among students. The event, held under the esteemed patronage of Prof. (Dr.) T.K. Sharma, Principal of the college, featured a range of engaging activities designed to underscore the significance of voting in a democratic society.

lighting the importance of exercising one's voting rights. Active participation came from NCC cadets, NSS volunteers, and students from the Political Science and Physical Education departments, demonstrating a strong collective commitment to promoting democratic engagement. Notable speakers Sonia Sharma, Neha Devi, and Rakhi Manhas, all from the third semester, delivered speeches on the value of voting as both a fundamental right and a civic duty. They emphasized the power of every single vote in fostering positive change within the country. Additionally,

Taniya Sharma and Mannu Devi, also from the third semester, captivated the audience with their poems on the crucial role of voting. Students showcased their creativity and enthusiasm through slogan writing, with impactful messages such as "Shape Your future, Vote Now" and "Every Vote Matters," aimed at spreading awareness about the significance of voting. In his keynote address, Principal Prof. (Dr.) T.K. Sharma highlighted the dual nature of voting as both a privilege and a responsibility. He stressed that voting is not only a way to express individual opinions but also a powerful tool for shaping the collective future of society. The symposium concluded with a pledge-taking ceremony, where students committed to advancing voting awareness and encouraging their peers to exercise their voting rights. The event was organized under the aegis of Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of the college. Prof. Reeta Menia, Dr. Rashmi Sharma, Prof. Shivani Sharma, Prof. Himanshu Khajuria, Prof. Sunil Kumar, and Prof. Pooja Kumari also graced the occasion with their presence.
