PoJK DPs holds rally for long-awaited solutions

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: A rally of Displaced Persons (DPs) from Pakistan-occupied Jammu & Kashmir (PoJK) took place at Maharaja Hari Singh Park. Under the leadership of Captain (Retd) Yudhvir Singh Chib, the event aimed to spotlight the ongoing challenges faced by PoJK DPs, who have been advocating for long-pending resolutions to their issues.

A large number of DPs participated in the rally, carrying placards, banners, and flags. They attempted to march towards the Secretariat to present their grievances but were stopped by a police presence near Dogra Chowk.

The rally highlighted the historical grievances of the PoJK DPs, who claim that territory was ceded to Pakistan by the then Prime Minister Jawahar Lal Nehru in 1947 and additional areas were gifted during the Indo-PoJK displaced persons taking out rally in Jammu on Friday.

Pak War of 1971 by Prime Minister Indira Gandhi.

The DPs expressed their frustration with what they perceive as ongoing neglect and discrimination from successive governments, particularly under Congress leadership. They voiced hopes that the current BJP government would address their concerns more effectively.

The DPs acknowledged the relief provided by the BJP government, including the allocation of Rs 750 crores and Rs 5.5 lakh per DP. However, they are seeking the release of additional funds recommended by the Joint Parliamentary Committee (JPC), which would total Rs 30 lakhs per DP.

Captain Yudhvir Singh Chib urged the DPs to unite and support BJP candidates in the upcoming elections, scheduled for September and October 2024.

He stressed that backing specific demands from the DPs. They requested the allocation of agriculture land and residential plots (minimum 10 Maria's per DP) to support their livelihood and housing needs. Additionally, they sought further assistance under the PM Awas Yojna to aid in house construction. They appealed for Scheduled Tribe (ST) status to benefit from reservations in government services and higher education.

Furthermore, they requested increased representation in the state assembly, proposing a minimum of 12 seats for PoJK DPs. Finally, they called for the immediate release of pending payments amounting to Rs 5.5 lakhs per DP, which have been delayed despite being processed by the District Administration.

The rally was attended by J.P. Sharma, Kuldeep Singh Chib, Kulbir Singh Chib, Sakandya Devi, Kehar Singh Chib, Master Raghunath Singh, Ch. Rattan Lal, Thoru Ram Chib, Sham Singh Chib, Hoshnaki Ram, Kamal Sharma, and Ranjit Singh Chib.

BJP workers in Kalakote express resentment over Randir Singh's candidacy

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: BJP worker Dilbagh Singh Thakur and others from Kalakote expressed their strong opposition to the selection of Thakur Randir Singh as a "parachute candidate" for the BJP.

Thakur Randir Singh, a former National Conference (NC) leader for 40 years, was accused by Dilbagh Singh and his associates of joining the BJP only to shield himself from criminal activities and property amassed illegally.

In a press conference here on Friday, they claimed that Thakur Randir Singh is using his muscle power and wealth to overpower long-serving BJP workers and leaders.

Dilbagh Singh, who has been a social and political activist with the BJP and RSS since 2006, described how Randir Singh never supported BJP workers during his tenure in the NC.

He alleged that Randir

Sing harassed him and his family for years, falsely accusing him of being involved in criminal activities to suppress his support for the BJP in the NC-dominated Kalakote-Sunderbani constituency.

Dilbagh Singh added that Randir Singh's entry into the BJP goes against the party's values and the vision of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, who once called for turning Kalakote from "Hell to Heaven" during a rally in 2014.

He criticized the BJP leadership, especially state president Ravinder Raina, for endorsing Randir Singh despite his past actions and alleged Gundaism.

Dilbagh Singh also recalled violent incidents from the 2014 and 2019 elections, where Randir Singh and his associates were involved in attacking BJP workers, including women, and using their political influence to file false cases against them.

He called for the BJP leadership to reconsider its decision and protect long-time party workers from being sidelined by "parachute candidates" like Thakur Randir Singh.

Kawa Group of Institutions introduces 'Education For All' initiative

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Through its innovative programs and partnerships, Kawa Group aims to empower students and professionals to achieve their full potential. Kawa Group has long been recognized as a leader in driving educational innovation since last 30 years, in a significant move towards making quality education accessible to all, Kawa Group (J&K) is proud to announce the launch of its innovative 'Education For All' Initiative, an Educational Financial Assistance Scheme aimed at supporting students across diverse academic fields. This groundbreaking initiative allows students to pursue higher education without the immediate burden of tuition fees, enabling them to pay their course fees after successful completion of their studies and securing employment, this latest initiative furthers its mission to create opportunities for students regardless of their financial background.

M S Katoch (Chairman) of Kawa Group, emphasized the importance of this initiative by stating that "Education is the foundation of progress, but the rising cost of tuition fees often makes it inaccessible for many deserving students. At Kawa Group, we believe that no student should be denied an education due to financial constraints. Our new financial assistance scheme ensures that students can focus on achieving their academic and career goals, with the flexibility to repay fees after securing employment."

He further explained that under this scheme, students can enroll in their desired programs without having to pay any fees during their study period. The fees can be paid after the successful completion of the course and upon securing employment, making it a unique option for students who might otherwise face financial challenges. He further added that the scheme is open to all students, regardless of their socio-economic background, who meet the academic criteria set by the regulatory bodies.

Further, he said that the Kawa Group is committed to helping students to secure employment post course completion. The scheme includes robust job placement services in collaboration with industry partners, ensuring that students are not only well-prepared for their careers but also supported in finding suitable employment opportunities. One of the key aspects of the scheme is that the repayment of fees will be after one year of course completion or after placement, allowing students to repay the amount in manageable installments once they start earning. This offers a stress-free path to financial independence and educational advancement.

Kawa Group's initiative is expected to positively impact thousands of students across the country, empowering them to break free from the limitations of financial hardship and focus on their personal and professional growth. With the backing of renowned educational institutions and industry leaders, the scheme aims to create a ripple effect in the education sector, promoting inclusivity and encouraging more students to pursue higher education.

Kawa Group plans to expand the scheme in the coming years, reaching more students and offering additional support services, such as career counseling and mentorship programs, to ensure their success in both academics and employment.

Other members who were present in the conference were Abhimanyu Katoch (MD, Kawa Group, Ayush Katoch (Director, Kawa Group), Dr Heena Jamwal (Director RGP), Anjana Bavouria (Director RGCN), Dr Bharti Sharma (Principal, Kawa College), Dilbagh Singh, Rushal Manhas.

NAUP announces MLA candidates for Jammu Constituencies

NAUP Sandeep Singh Manhas with candidates and others.

STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: The National Awami United Party (NAUP) on Friday announced its candidates for the upcoming MLA elections in key constituencies across the Jammu region.

Party President Sandeep Singh Manhas declared the candidates namely Shikha Bhandral for Jammu West, Mohit Dalhotra for Jammu North, and Pinki Devi for Samba Constituency.

In his statement, Manhas emphasized the party's commitment to the underprivileged and marginalized sections of society, saying, "The NAUP is the party of the poor and oppressed. Our main ideology is to empower the underrepresented, giving them a platform to step into politics and claim the rights that have long been denied to them by other parties."

He further expressed confidence in the candidates, stating that they exemplify the party's vision of grassroots leadership. Each candidate has been selected for their dedication to serving the people and their alignment with the party's mission to bring real change by focusing on the needs of the common people.

"The political landscape has for too long been dominated by those who overlook the issues of the poor. The NAUP stands to change that by ensuring that political power is in the hands of the people who truly understand and represent the needs of the community," Manhas added.

The NAUP is calling for a new era in politics where the focus is on inclusivity, opportunity, and fairness for all, regardless of socio-economic background.
