DEO launches 'Ek Ped Maa Ke Naam' drive to promote Green Election initiative

DEO Poonch Vikas Kundal planting a sapling.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
POONCH: In a unique initiative, District Election Officer (DEO) Poonch Vikas Kundal on Sunday launched "Ek Ped Maa Ke Naam" tree plantation drive, linking it with the Green Sweep campaign and Systematic Voters' Education and Electoral Participation (SVEEP).

The DEO planted a tree at Deena Nath Rafiq Memorial Higher Secondary School, marking the beginning of the campaign. The initiative aims to promote environmental responsibility and encourage citizens to vote. It is pertinent to mention here that Several polling stations in Haveli, Mendhar, and Surankote assembly constituencies have been designated as Green Polling Stations. "The 'Ek Ped Maa Ke Naam' initiative honors our mothers and contributes to a sustainable future," said DEO Poonch. "We urge everyone to participate and make our polling stations eco-friendly." The Green Polling Stations will feature eco-friendly voting material, efficient waste management, and tree plantation drives, accompanied by environmental awareness campaigns.

The district administration has pledged to make the upcoming elections an environmentally conscious event, inspiring other districts to follow suit. This initiative integrates environmental responsibility with democratic participation, fostering a culture of sustainability in Jammu and Kashmir. By launching this initiative, Poonch district sets an example for eco-friendly elections, promoting a positive impact on the environment. The "Ek Ped Maa Ke Naam" initiative encourages citizens to take responsibility for their environment and vote for a sustainable future. With this innovative approach, the district administration aims to make a lasting impact on the community.

The event was attended by Principal HSS Girls Anjuman Shaheen, DFO Poonch, and senior district administration officials

Training for Micro Observers held at Bhandarwah

Officials during the meeting at Bhandarwah.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
BHADERWAH: In preparation for the upcoming Assembly Election 2024, a training program for Micro Observers of Assembly Constituency (AC) 51 Bhaderwah was organized here at Dak Bungalow.

In all, 75 Micro Observers are being trained to oversee 196 polling stations in different parts of the constituency, ensuring that the election process is carried out efficiently and in accordance with the Election Commission of India's guidelines.

The training session was led by Dr. Akhter Hussain Akhoo, District Nodal Officer for Trainings and Human Resources, who delivered a comprehensive presentation. He covered essential guidance on election procedures, the role of Micro Observers in maintaining transparency, and the correct handling of election materials, including Electronic Voting Machines (EVMs) and Voter Verifiable Paper Audit Trail (VVPAT) systems. The session aimed to equip the Micro Observers with the necessary knowledge and skills to ensure smooth conduct on Election Day.

Present at the event was General Observer Mallikarjun, overseeing the training for AC-51 Bhaderwah. The Nodal Officer for Micro Observers and the Liaison Officer from R&B Bhaderwah were also in attendance, reinforcing the importance of coordination between different departments to ensure a fair and transparent election.

This initiative is part of the broader effort to ensure that the Assembly Election 2024 runs smoothly and that all officials involved are well-prepared to fulfill their responsibilities on polling day.

RO 48-Inderwal takes BLO on board to ensure readiness for smooth, free, fair polling

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
KISHTWAR: As the polling day approaches, the election machinery in Kishtwar has reinforced its efforts to ensure that all necessary arrangements are in place for a smooth, free, and fair election process.

In this regard, an online meeting was organized by Returning Officer (RO) for 48-Inderwal Constituency, Idrees Ahmed Lone with Booth Level Officers (BLOs) of the constituency. The meeting focused on critical topics, including Home Voting and the SVEEP campaign aimed at achieving 100% voter turnout. During the meeting, RO reviewed the current status of poll

arrangements and emphasized the need for cleanliness and readiness at polling stations. He stressed the importance of 100% distribution of voter information slips to the voters of each ward, a key responsibility of the BLOs.

Further, the RO highlighted the role of BLOs as ground-level facilitators, offering vital instructions to ensure that polling arrangements are smoothly executed at all stations. Special focus was placed on voter guidance during elections and the implementation of 100% webcasting at each polling station on polling day. Reiterating the crucial role of BLOs, Mr Lone called for enhanced coordination among all stakeholders to achieve 100% voter turnout in the 48-Inderwal Assembly Constituency. The meeting concluded with BLOs receiving actionable directives to fine-tune their preparations as the constituency heads toward a seamless and successful election.
