

BJP will never allow revival of divisive politics in J&K: Dr Jitendra

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

BANI: Hitting out hard at the opposition, Union Minister Dr. Jitendra Singh said here on Monday that BJP will never allow revival of divisive politics in Jammu & Kashmir.

Addressing a series of meetings in far-flung areas of Bani Assembly constituency including hilly areas of Duggan, Dr Jitendra said that for over half a century, Congress and National Conference continued to perpetuate their rule by dividing the society the communal lines and instigating Muslims against Hindus and Hindus against Muslims. The Bani Assembly segment is an example of the composite culture where Hindus and Muslims have always lived together with harmony without allowing any mischief to divide them.

Union Minister Dr Jitendra Singh addressing BJP election public meeting at far-flung Duggan area of Bani Assembly constituency on Monday.

Dr Jitendra said that Prime Minister Narendra Modi has with a lot of effort, commitment and conviction tried to create a new culture where the society lives in harmony and the benefits of the government reach every needy person regardless of caste, creed, religion or vote preference. Giving an example, he said, earlier in these hills only mud houses to be seen but today there is a beautiful scene of pucca houses constructed all over and the pucca houses have been constructed without consideration of whether the householder is a Hindu or a Muslim. Similarly, he said, the Gas cylinders under PM Ujjawala scheme have been provided to each household regardless of religion, caste or vote consideration.

Dr Singh cautioned the people that during this election time, there are some parties and candidates trying to provoke communal sentiments to gather votes. He asked them in an emotional tone, whether they would allow such sinful design to succeed which has the potential to ruin the mind-set and upbringing of our children. On this, everybody raised their hands and said, "No". Addressing the women folk in audience, Dr Jitendra said, National Conference manifesto supported by Congress says they will bring back 35 A and deprive our daughters of their property rights. He compared this with the Sankalp Patra issued by BJP, which promises a new scheme called "Man Samman Nidhi", wherein the most elderly woman in the house would be offered financial assistance of Rs. 18000 per year as a mark of respect to motherhood. Appealing for a vote in support of BJP candidate Jeevan Lal, Dr Singh said, the message from these hills should be loud and clear that we are a part of Modi's and our identity is that of proud Indians being led by the tallest leader of the world on the path of development.

Congress is only alternative available to people in J&K: Bhalla

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: JKPCC Working President Raman Bhalla on Monday criticized the government for its failure in delivering its promises to the citizens. This was stated by former Minister while addressing election gatherings at various places including Khwaskhan, Azad Nagar, Upper Jallochak, Lower Ratmchak, Kunjwani, Lower Jallochak and Shastri Nagar in RS Pura Jammu South constituency. Bhalla observed that though, the Congress party was not against the implementation of the Goods & Services Taxes (GST) But the ill-prepared manner in which the GST was rolled out by the present Government, has not gone well with the people, particularly the small & middle call business community. The party will leave no stone unturned in exposing the BJP government anti-people policy by way of generating awareness among the masses, added Bhalla. Bhalla said that Congress is the only alternative available to the people in J&K and now the public has made up mind to bring back Congress to power. Bhalla asked party rank and file to expose the failures of the BJP by educating the masses whose problems have been complicated besides disturbing the social and secular fabric of J&K. Bhalla alleged that the basic needs of the people - be it electricity, drinking water, roads, infrastructure for hospitals and educational institutions - are not available due to the poor response from Govt.

Chugh questions Abdullah's role as Pak ambassador or Pak PRO

Abdullah dancing to tune of Pak, ignoring welfare of J&K

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

SRINAGAR: BJP National General Secretary Tarun Chugh on Monday questioned Farooq Abdullah, describing him a self-styled ambassador or a PRO of the Pakistan government, for advocating the cause of Pakistan more than talking about the progress and development of Jammu and Kashmir.

In a strong reaction to Farooq Abdullah's repeated suggestion to the India government that it should hold talks with Pakistan, Chugh said it is high time Abdullah stopped seeing across the border to speak the language of his mentors in the Pakistan ISI.

While underlining that talks and terror could not go hand-in-hand, Chugh said it is strange that Farooq Abdullah, supported by the Congress and the Muftis, keeps flaunting the anti-national sentiments in support of Pakistan knowing very well that Pakistan is a factory of terrorism for the whole world. Chugh recalled the recent statement of Pakistan Defence Minister, who proclaimed that Pakistan and the NCP along with the Congress were on the same page on critical issues like the Article 370, saying this has clearly exposed the hidden common agenda that the Abdullahs, Congress and the Muftis share with Pakistan.

"It clearly demonstrated that the Abdullahs and the Congress have been dancing to the tunes of Pakistan at the cost of peace and development in J&K", Chugh said. He said under the Modi government people of J&K have realised the damage the Abdullahs and Muftis have done to them over the past many years. People now want development, industrial growth, fillip in tourism, jobs for the youth. They do not want bullets and stones, he added.

BJP will create 5 new districts including Nowshera, Sunderbani-Kalakote, 3 others

JAMMU: The BJP National General Secretary and Incharge, J&K, Tarun Chugh, on Monday said that BJP will create five new districts in Jammu and Kashmir thus taking the total number of districts to 25.

In social media, Chugh posted, "For the development and prosperity of J&K, BJP will create 5 new districts including Nowshera, Sunderbani-Kalakote and 3 others".

As of now, there are 20 districts in J&K, 10 each in Jammu and Kashmir regions. The five new districts will further streamline the administrative works in J&K.

The five new districts to be created in J&K are part of PM Modi's administrative reforms undertaken across the country, Chugh said.

The five new districts will further bring administrative reforms in J&K and people will be able to avail government services without any inconvenience, he said.

"The creation of 5 new districts in J&K will streamline government functioning and would enable people of every nook and corner, especially the hilly areas of J&K to avail government services without any inconvenience", he said, adding that it will also pave way for development of J&K.

In the Assembly elections the Muftis, and the Congress people will teach a befitting lesson to the Aadullahs and the Muftis, and the Congress for playing in the hands of Pakistan, Chugh added.
