Swedish Scientist interacts with SMVDU Students on Career Development

STATE TIMES NEWS
KATRA: Shri Mata Vaishno Devi University organized a webinar for PhD scholars featuring Dr. Elena Hoffer, co-founder of Alma.Me from Sweden, as the distinguished speaker. This session offered invaluable guidance on transitioning from academia to industry careers. Dr. Hoffer, a passionate advocate for helping academics transition into non-academic careers, delivered a compelling presentation titled "How to Kickstart Your Career After PhD."
Drawing from her own experiences as a PhD student and entrepreneur, she shared strategies to help early- and mid-career academics explore of whom expressed their appreciation for the insights offered. The webinar was attended by students, faculty and scholars of various departments.

Chakshu Gupta, a scholar from the School of Language and Literature, adeptly hosted the session and Yuvraj Singh Pathania, Alumni Student Coordinated from the School of Biotechnology.
Dr. Yugal Khajuria, Dean of International and Alumni Affairs, and Dr. Mir Irfan UIHaq, Associate Dean of International and Alumni Affairs informed that the university is providing the students an environment to interact with global experts so as to prepare the students for a global market. The webinar was a reflection of SMVDU's ongoing commitment under the leadership of Prof. Pragati Kumar (Vice Chancellor, SMVDU) to prepare its students for success both inside and outside the academic realm.

The university continues to provide opportunities for its students and scholars to explore diverse career paths and excel in their chosen fields.

SVEEP Cell of GDC Ramnagar organizes signature campaign

STATE TIMES NEWS
RAMNAGAR: In its ongoing efforts to promote electoral literacy and increase voter awareness, the SVEEP (Systematic Voters' Education and Electoral Participation) Cell of Government Degree College (GDC) Ramnagar organized a Signature Campaign on Wednesday under the guidance of Prof. (Dr.) Bhavnaish Chand Anthal, Principal of GDC Ramnagar. The event, aimed at encouraging students and faculty to commit to their civic responsibility of voting, was organized by Dr. Sunil Kumar (SVEEP Nodal Officer). Faculty members including Prof. Jatinder Lal, Dr. Jeevan Kumar (Member of SVEEP Cell), and Prof. Sanjay Malhotra (Member of SVEEP Cell) actively participated in the campaign, showing their support for the cause of electoral participation.

Speaking on the occasion, Prof. (Dr.) Bhavnaish Chand Anthal emphasized the importance of such initiatives in fostering a sense of civic duty among the youth. "Voting is the cornerstone of democracy, and through campaigns like these, we hope to instil in our students the value of their vote and the impact it can have on society," he remarked. Dr. Sunil Kumar, the event organizer and SVEEP Nodal Officer, highlighted the significance of the signature campaign in reinforcing the message of responsible voting and urged everyone to be active participants in the democratic process.

The campaign received enthusiastic support from both students and faculty, marking another successful step in the college's ongoing efforts to enhance voter awareness under the SVEEP initiative.

SVEEP Activities organized across schools in Assembly Constituency Hiranagar

STATE TIMES NEWS
KATHUA: In a concerted effort to boost voter awareness and promote electoral participation, a series of SVEEP (Systematic Voters' Education and Electoral Participation) activities were successfully organized at various schools across Assembly Constituency 68-Hiranagar. These events were designed to educate students and the wider community about the importance of voting and encouraging informed, ethical participation in the democratic process. The activities were held at multiple educational institutions, including Government High Schools and Senior Secondary Schools, where students actively participated in a range of awareness programs. These included debates, skits, poster-making competitions, and interactive sessions on the significance of voting, with a special focus on first-time voters. The program also emphasized the use of Electronic Voting Machines (EVMs) and Voter Verifiable Paper Audit Trails (VVPATs), helping students understand the electoral process and the steps involved in casting a vote. Resource persons from the Election Department, along with local Booth Level Officers (BLOs), were present to guide the participants and provide detailed information on voter registration, the importance of ethical voting, and the impact of informed electoral participation. SVEEP is a crucial initiative to ensure that every eligible voter, especially the youth, is empowered with the knowledge and responsibility to participate in the electoral process," said AC Nodal Officer Priya Lakshmi (CDPO Hiranagar). "We are committed to creating an informed and active electorate that contributes to a healthy democracy." These SVEEP activities were well-received, with students showing a keen interest in understanding their civic duties and encouraging their peers and families to register and vote in the upcoming elections.

Kathua: First-Time Voters eagerly wait for Oct 1- the Polling Day

STATE TIMES NEWS
KATHUA: The excitement is building in Assembly Constituency 67-Kathua (SC) as the voters, particularly first-time voters prepare to cast their ballots on October 1, 2024. This historic day marks a significant milestone for these young voters, who are eagerly embracing their civic responsibility and gearing up to shape the future of their constituency. Across Kathua, the enthusiasm of the youth is palpable. Many first-time voters are looking forward to participating in the democratic process, motivated by their aspirations for progress, development, and inclusivity. In the weeks leading up to the election, social media has been buzzing with discussions, while local communities have been engaging in conversations about the pressing issues facing the region. Education, healthcare, and employment opportunities remain at the forefront of their concerns, and they are hopeful that their votes will contribute to creating a more prosperous and equitable future. "This is a proud moment for me. Voting is not just a right, but a responsibility, and I'm excited to be part of this change," shared one first-time voter. The anticipation surrounding this election has fostered a sense of unity among the residents of Kathua, as they collectively prepare to make their voices heard. The youthful energy in the constituency underscores the importance of this election, where the hope for better governance and greater opportunities resonates deeply with the people.
