Union Minister Kishan Reddy visits flood-hit areas in Telangana, assures Centre's help

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

HYDERABAD: Telangana BJP president and Union Coal Minister G Kishan Reddy on Sunday visited flood-hit areas of Khammam district of the state and assured the people that the Narendra Modi government would fully support those affected in every possible way.

He said the Centre has told the Telangana government to first use the Rs 1,345 crore available in the State Disaster Response Fund (SDRF) to help the flood-hit people.

The amount is available with the state as an advance from the Government of India, he said. "Soon after the havoc caused by heavy rains and flood, Prime Minister Narendra Modi spoke to Telangana Chief Minister A Revanth Reddy. PM Modi asked him (Revanth Reddy) to utilise the advance of Rs 1,345 crore in the SDRF. There should be no politics over flood relief," Kishan Reddy said, after visiting the Munneru flood victims in Khammam district on Sunday.

As many as 29 people lost their lives in the recent heavy rains and flooding in Telangana.

The state government has urged the Centre to declare the recent spell of heavy rains and flood in the state as a national calamity and to release immediate assistance of Rs 2,000 crore.

It has put the losses at Rs 5,438 crore as per preliminary estimates, due to the rains and floods.

Kishan Reddy, who visited and assessed the flood-affected areas of Dhamsalapuram and Thirumalapalem in Khammam, said he interacted with people affected by the devastating floods and inquired about the flood relief and rehabilitation efforts.

In a post on 'X' he said "Also learned that the victims were not receiving adequate support from the state government."

Khammam witnessed unprecedented floods, rendering a lot of people homeless.

Both the state and the Central governments would stand with the victims and render all assistance, the Union Minister assured.

Kishan Reddy also promised to build a retaining wall along the Munneru stream in the surrounding area to prevent future flooding.

He visited the relief camp at Agraharam Colony and interacted with the displaced people. He distributed relief material and blankets to them.

Telangana Revenue Minister Ponguleti Srinivas Reddy, BJP MPs Eatata Rajender, Konda Vishweshwar Reddy and other officials were present.

Hoodas used wrestlers like Pandavas did Draupadi: former WFI chief Brij Bhushan

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

GONDA (UP): Former BJP MP Brij Bhushan Sharan Singh on Sunday accused the Hooda family of Congress of conspiring against him by using wrestlers as wager just as Pandavas had put Draupadi at stake.

Singh, a former chief of Wrestling Federation of India, was last year accused of sexual assault by several female wrestlers, who sat on a protest for weeks demanding a probe against him.

At his residence on Sunday, he told reporters, "In the gambling which took place in Mahabharat, Draupadi was put at stake. The Pandavas lost. The country is still not able to accept their reasons for doing it."

He added, "The Hooda family ... put the honour of daughters and sisters at stake. The future generation will not forgive them for this and they will always be held guilty for this."

Vinesh Phogat and Bajrang Punia, who is an Olympic bronze-medallist, along with another Olympic bronze-winner Sakshi Malik spearheaded the agitation last year.

Singh said, "Bajrang Punia's mental condition has deteriorated. He had put his wife at stake. I want to ask him why he went to play in the Asian Games without trials?"

Asked about the wrestlers' protest in Delhi, Singh said, "There was no protest of wrestlers in Delhi. It was a family protest. When we say wrestlers, a group comes. Are wrestlers not in Punjab, Haryana? Are they not in Maharashtra, Bihar, UP, Bengal and Himachal?"

He accused Congress leader Deepender Hooda of leading the protest at Delhi's Jantar Mantar. "Priyanka Gandhi also used to come."

On Saturday, Singh, the former BJP MP from Kaiserganj, had said that Vinesh Phogat and Bajrang Punia were used by the Congress as "pawns" in a "conspiracy" to take control of the Wrestling Federation of India.

Singh first got control of WFI in 2012 after a bitter turf war with Deepender Singh Hooda.

The agitation forced Singh, a six-time Lok Sabha MP from the Kaiserganj constituency, to step down from the position of WFI head. He is currently facing criminal charges in a court.

After his ouster, his close aide Sanjay Singh was elected as the head of WFI but the body is yet to get recognition from the sports ministry, even though the world governing body for wrestling, UWW, has endorsed it.

On Friday, Phogat and Punia joined the Congress with a vow of "not being scared or backing off."

Subsequently, the Congress released its first list of 32 candidates for the Haryana Assembly polls, fielding former chief minister Bhupinder Singh Hooda from Garhi Sampla-Kiloi, state unit chief Udai Bhan from Hodal and Vinesh Phogat from Julana.

Brahmaputra," he wrote.

The state government organised a cultural programme at the Samadhi Kshetra of the 'Bard of Brahmaputra' at Jalukbari on the outskirts of the city.

Assam Cultural Affairs Minister Bimal Borah paid floral tribute to the memory of Hazarika at the Samadhi Kshetra, where a cultural programme has also been organised.

The Bhupen Hazarika Sangaskritik Nyas also organised a programme to pay tribute to the late artist.

Ninety-nine flags were hoisted by eminent people from different walks of life as part of the programme, while songs of the musical maestro were also performed on the occasion.

Education Minister Ranoj Pegu also hoisted a flag at the event, urging the people to imbibe and follow the ideals of brotherhood and harmony espoused by Hazarika in their lives.

Tributes were paid to the legendary musician in different parts of the state, with programmes organised to commemorate the 98th birth anniversary of the legend.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

GUWAHATI: Rich tributes were paid to Bhupen Hazarika on his birth anniversary on Sunday, with compositions by the musical maestro reverberating across Assam as special programmes were organised to mark the occasion.

Assam Governor Lakshman Prasad Acharya, in a post on X, said, "Like the ever-flowing waters of the Burhaluit, may the words of love, unity and harmony of Sudhakanth echo in the hearts of every Assamese."

referred to as the Burhaluit, and the suffix 'Sudhakanth' (melodious voice) is used for Hazarika.

"I pay my respects to the evergreen artist Bharat Ratna Dr Bhupen Hazarika on his birth anniversary," he added.

Assam Chief Minister Himanta Biswa Sarma also paid his tributes on the micro-blogging site.

"The music of Dr Bhupen Hazarika transcends all barriers! His songs radiate the message of justice, harmony and brotherhood. Today on his Jayanti, we pay homage to the Bard of
