Dr. Navneet advocates global unity and gender inclusion at UN Peace Talks in Geneva

■ STATE TIMES NEWS
GENEVA: Dr. Navneet Kaur, renowned Indian social reformer and Vice Chairperson of the All India Sustainable Development Council (AISDC), delivered a compelling address at the prestigious Global Peace Talks held at the United Nations Headquarters in Geneva. The two-day conference brought together diplomats, peacebuilders, and social leaders from over 60 countries under the theme "Peace is Possible."

Representing India, Dr. Kaur reaffirmed the country's unwavering commitment to peace, gender equality, and global collaboration in peacekeeping. Drawing from her roots in Jammu & Kashmir, she spoke passionately about India's "zero-tolerance" stance on terrorism, advocating for genuine dialogue and sustainable peace solutions. "India is on the side of peace and will remain firmly there," she declared.

Highlighting the critical role of women in peace processes, Dr. Kaur emphasized the need for inclusive strategies that enhance their participation in global peacekeeping missions. She advocated for the empowerment of youth through quality education and transferable skills, positioning them as catalysts for peace and socio-economic development. "We must equip our young people not just with degrees, but with the wisdom and tools to be peacebuilders in their communities," she stressed.

The Global Peace Talks, a UN-recognized initiative founded in 2013 by the United Nations Office at Geneva, Interpeace, and the Geneva Peace building Platform with support from the Swiss government, promotes international understanding through storytelling and dialogue. On the sidelines of the event, Dr. Kaur met with Itonde Kakoma, President & CEO of Interpeace, to discuss collaborative opportunities.

Alongside AISDC partner Vigil Kanethara, Dr. Kaur expressed optimism about forging new pathways of cooperation with Interpeace to strengthen community-led peace initiatives. "Our shared vision aligns closely-empowering communities and building sustainable peace is our common goal," she stated.

Referencing India's spiritual and cultural legacy, Dr. Kaur echoed Prime Minister Narendra Modi's vision of peace: "India is the land of Gautam Buddha and Mahatma Gandhi. We are not wired for conflict-we are rooted in harmony and compassion. When India speaks of peace, the world listens."
