

Sinha launches LG's Sainik Sahayta Kendra Portal

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

SRINAGAR: Lieutenant Governor Manoj Sinha on Friday launched a web portal of Lieutenant Governor's Sainik Sahayta Kendra, at Raj Bhawan.

Lieutenant Governor's Sainik Sahayta Kendra (LGSSK) is a landmark initiative dedicated to the welfare of serving personnel of the Armed Forces and Central Armed Police Forces (CAPFs).

To further strengthen its functioning, the administration has introduced the portal - lgssk.jk.gov.in. Developed by BISAG-N, the portal is a support tool for the Kendra, designed to log each grievance, record action taken, and provide tracking access to both authorities and applicants. While the Kendra remains the institutional platform for soldier welfare facilitation, the portal ensures structured follow-up and transparent monitoring of every case.

Lieutenant Governor's Sainik

Sahayta Kendra is a bridge between serving personnel and the civil administration, ensuring that matters submitted are taken up promptly, guided through the right channels, and resolved in a time-bound manner. By coordinating directly with government offices, arranging facilitation where required, and monitoring progress, the Kendra assures soldiers that their families' needs will be looked after while they focus fully on their duty to the nation.

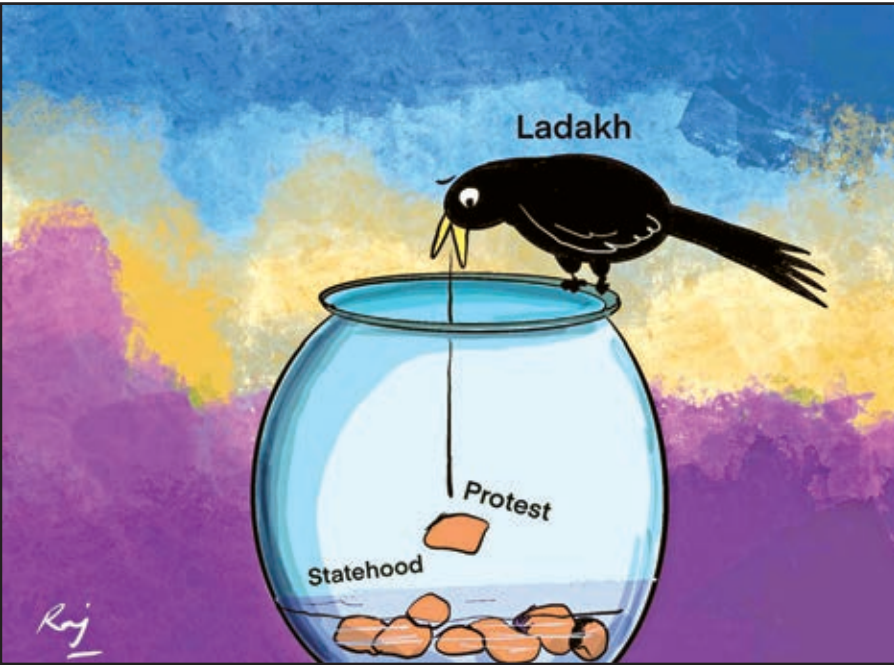

With its offices now functional at the Civil Secretariats in Jammu and Srinagar, the Kendra will serve as a single-window facilitation centre to resolve civil issues of all serving personnel belonging to J&K, as well as those currently deployed in the Union Territory.

Prasanna Ramaswamy G, Secretary, Tribal Affairs Department, and In-charge Lieutenant Governor's Sainik Sahayta Kendra, under the supervision of J&K Home Department, gave a detailed presentation on the Sainik Sahayta Kendra.

Applications to the Kendra will be accepted only when routed through the respective Commanding Officers, in order to maintain authenticity and integrity. Submissions may be made via email at lg-ssk-jk@jk.gov.in, or by post to:

LG's Sainik Sahayta Kendra, Room No. 56, Ground Floor, Civil Secretariat, Srinagar - 190001

LG's Sainik Sahayta Kendra, Near Secretariat Treasury, Civil Secretariat, Jammu - 180001.

Sunil Kumar's devotional song 'Mata Meriya' released

STATE TIMES Editor-in-Chief, Raj Daluja and others releasing devotional song 'Mata Meriya'.

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: As part of the ongoing Navratra celebrations, Sunil Music Entertainment has released a soul-stirring devotional song titled 'Mata Meriya', offering devotees a spiritual experience through music.

The Bhajan has been beautifully composed and sung by Sunil Sharma, popularly known as the Kishore Kumar of Jammu, whose melodious voice continues to captivate audiences across the region.

The powerful lyrics have been penned by renowned writer Inderjeet Kesar, whose contribution to devotional literature is widely recognized. The music for the song has been directed by Piyush Ranjan, while the video has been skillfully shot by Sunny Chouhan (DOP). The final production, including editing, VFX, graphics, and color grading, has been masterfully done by Vinod Gupta, ensuring a visually engaging and devotional feel to the release.

The release ceremony witnessed the presence of several dignitaries, including STATE TIMES Editor-in-Chief, Raj Daluja, senior BJP leaders MLA Yudhvir Sethi, Zorawar Singh, Vikrant, Vinod, and other respected persons from the cultural and political landscape.

The audience was moved by the Bhajan, which invoked blessings from Machel Mata, Vaishno Devi, and Bawe Wali Mata, offering listeners a divine spiritual experience.

Praising the Bhajan release, Raj Daluja congratulated Sunil Sharma and his entire team for presenting such a spiritually enriching composition. He stated that the song 'Mata Meriya' not only pays tribute to the divine but also uplifts the cultural and musical identity of Jammu & Kashmir.

"Sunil Sharma's dedication to devotional music and his consistent efforts to promote Dogra culture through his voice is truly commendable," Daluja said.

He added that such musical offerings during Navratra strengthen the spiritual connect of listeners and serve as an inspiration for emerging artists from the region.

Speaking at the event, Yudhvir Sethi extended heartfelt congratulations to Sunil Kumar and his entire team. He praised their efforts in promoting the rich Dogra culture and language through music.

He also highlighted how Jammu's youth are making a name for themselves in the music industry, not just artistically but also economically, turning passion into profession.

He emphasized the importance of supporting local talent and preserving the sweetness and strength of the Dogri language.

Sethi encouraged the public to not only listen and appreciate the song but also to share it widely, making Dogri music heard across the nation.

The program concluded

Chairperson NCW chairs Mahila Jansunwai at Jammu

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Chairperson National Commission for Women (NCW), Vijaya Rohatkhar on Friday chaired a public hearing for women (Mahila Jansunwai) under 'NCW Aapke Dwar' initiative.

The event was held with an aim to address women's issues and provide speedy redressal of their grievances.

Deputy Commissioner, Jammu, DIG, Jammu, Director, Social Welfare Jammu; SSP Jammu; ADC Jammu besides other senior officers of Police and Social Welfare Department were also present.

Speaking on the occasion, the Chairperson highlighted the objectives of program and said that the hearing aims to resolve long-pending cases and extend on-the-spot support to women facing difficulties, ensuring prompt justice for each woman who comes forward.

The Chairperson further said that the NCW is conducting training sessions under its YASHODA-AI program to empower women digitally. She said that the outreach program was organized to raise awareness among youth about gender equality and women's rights.

Earlier, Women from Jammu and nearby districts participated in the hearing and present their grievances directly before the Commission regarding domestic violence against them.

The Chairperson directed the District Magistrate and SSP Jammu to resolve all the issues of women on priority basis. She assured the affected women to take all necessary action on their complaints. Deputy Commissioner Jammu Rakesh Minhas and DIG Jammu Shiv Kumar on the occasion briefed the Chairperson about the action already been taken on complaints given by the women in different platforms as well as other cases.

Later, the Chairperson, NCW also chaired a meeting with senior officers of Police and District administration of Jammu Division.

During review meeting, threadbare discussions were held on various issues pertaining to women safety.

DIG, Police, Shiv Kumar briefed the chair about current status of crimes against women and necessary action being taken by the police authorities.

Other issues like gender sensitisation program, efforts and measures for women's safety, new crime law for women and violence against women issues were also discussed in the meeting.

The Chairperson appreciated the efforts taken by the police and district administration, highlighting that effective coordination and more hard work is needed to achieve desired goals in this regard. She also stressed upon the district administration to organise more awareness programs on these issues.
